

English

See study programme

Autumn 2024 (1. semester)

Language and Literature in the English-speaking World

ENG1017
30 sp

Spring 2025 (2. semester)

Language, Text and Culture in the English-speaking World

ENG1018
30 sp

Programme description

The English One Year Programme consists of two courses:

Language and Literature in the English-speaking world (autumn term)

Language, Text and Culture in the English-speaking world (spring term)

Learning outcomes

Learning outcomes are presented in the course plans for each semester.

Admission requirements

Admission requirement: Higher Education Entrance Qualification (generell studiekompetanse)

Career possibilities

The English One Year Programme facilitates professional language and communication development for professionals working across a range of fields in both the public and private sectors, including communication, tourism, culture, education and social work.

Teaching sessions

All classes, except the trip to York, will be delivered online only.

There are usually classes online four days a week, but some weeks there will be classes five days.

The teaching normally takes place between 09.15 - 14.00. The teaching is compulsory, with a requirement of 80% attendance. There is no recording of the teaching.

Study abroad

A one-week stay at the Norwegian Study Centre at the University of York, England, is offered as part of this course. The course fee is around NOK 2500 and includes tuition and accommodation. Expenses for travel and meals are extra.

Costs

No tuition fees for students within EU/EEA/EFTA.

Costs for semester registration and course literature apply.

More information for students with citizenship outside te EU/ EEA and Switzerland:

<https://www.nord.no/en/study-programmes/admission/tuition-fees>

Assessment methods

The Norwegian system for grading and assessment using the letter grades A - F, in which A denotes the best/highest grade and F denotes "not passed". Grades can also be awarded as "passed", "not passed", "approved" and "not approved".

Read Examinations rules and regulations

Graduation requirements

See course plans for detailed information about exams and assessment methods