

The candidate's report - Midway Seminar - PhD in Science of Professions

1. PhD candidate and project

Surname, first name	National identification number
Title of PhD project

2. Progress

- In accordance with the agreement
- Delayed in relation to the agreement
- Ahead of the agreement

3. Progress of the training element in accordance with the schedule

Scheduled and completed courses	Examination on semester	Comments (changes/discrepancies, etc.)

4. Published PhD works

Publication	Publication channel (journal, conference, etc.)

5. Approvals obtained (a copy of the approval(s)/notice(s) must be enclosed)

Type of approval (please tick)	Date obtained
<input type="checkbox"/> REK (Regional Committees for Medical and Health Research Ethics South East)
<input type="checkbox"/> NSD (Norwegian Centre for Research Data/Data Protection Officer for Research)
<input type="checkbox"/> The Norwegian Data Protection Authority
<input type="checkbox"/> The Norwegian Directorate of Health
<input type="checkbox"/> Others:

6. Schedule: A revised schedule that provides a brief overview of what has been done so far (courses, data collection, written texts/drafts, required duties or similar) and what remains to be done.

What has been done so far:          What remains to be done:
--

Signature

Date	PhD candidate
------	---------------

The form and appendices must be submitted to the Evaluation Committee no later than three weeks before the Midway Seminar, together with any relevant appendices (see below).

Appendices

PhD candidates who produce an article-based thesis are encouraged to submit the following written material:

1. The candidate's report form for the Midway Seminar
2. Summary
  - A 2-3 page description of the thesis; shared with Midway Seminar participants.
3. Outline
  - An outline of the short piece, containing:
    - Working title of the thesis
    - Revised question
    - Short drafts or keywords for the introduction, theory element, previous research, scientific theory, methodology, research ethics, initial analysis of the material and any discussion for the short piece.
4. Articles
  - Available articles/article drafts.
  - Summary of articles that have not been submitted as drafts, i.e. brief information about the planned question, theory, data and methodology.
5. Approvals and notices relating to research ethics and data protection
6. Schedule
  - A revised schedule that provides a brief overview of what has been done so far (courses, data collection, written texts/drafts, required duties or similar) and what remains to be done.

PhD candidates who produce monographs must submit the following written material to the Evaluation Committee:

1. The candidate's self-reporting form (PDF)
2. Summary
  - A 2-3 page description of the thesis; shared with Midway Seminar participants.
3. Available chapter drafts/summaries
  - A detailed outline of the introduction
  - Revised question
  - Draft literature review and theory
  - Draft methodology chapter, including research ethics assessments
  - Initial analysis of the material
4. Approvals and notices relating to research ethics and data protection
5. Schedule
  - A revised schedule that provides a brief overview of what has been done so far (courses, data collection, written texts/drafts, required duties or similar) and what remains to be done.